

Editor's Pick:

I've known Amanda Stiff for years - we both go back to when we served on the SPARCC board together. Spend a few minutes with her and you know how smart she is and how friendly. Well, to me that seems like the perfect combination for a financial advisor and now she's offering a lecture series designed just for women.

Amanda Stiff

You're invited to a Money Savvy Women Series offering events designed to impart a jargon-free personal finance education. What you will learn: Small initial steps can translate into improvement in your finances and what to concentrate on and what is "noise". Are you allergic to finance? Or do you have "get your finances organized" on your to do list?? Sign up today

Coming up:

- * Tuesday, January 19 is the Kick Off with a talk on "Financial Resolutions" held at 6:30 pm at Michael's Wine Cellar, 1283 S. Tamiami Trail.
- * Thursday, February 11-When & How to Start Investing
- * Tuesday, March 8-Life Stage Planning and Investing
- * Thursday, April 19-"Must Have" Docs for Life a Well-planned
- * Tuesday, May 10-Martinis & Markets

Her ad is here and her web site is accessadvice.net. Oh yes, phone: 366-7504 to RSVP.